INTRODUCTION

- The internet provides a range of social media tools that allow users to interact with one another, for example from rediscovering friends on social networking sites such as Facebook to keeping up with other people's lives on X and maintaining pages on internet encyclopaedias such as Wikipedia.
- While recognising the benefits of these media for new opportunities for communication, this policy sets out the principles that Toredale staff and contractors are expected to follow when using social media.
- It is crucial that pupils, their family members and the public at large have confidence in the education establishment's decisions and services. The principles set out in this policy are designed to ensure that staff members use social media responsibly so that confidentiality of pupils and other staff and the reputation of the education establishment and Doncaster Council are safeguarded.
- Staff members must be conscious at all times of the need to keep their personal and professional lives separate.

SCOPE

- This policy applies to all Toredale Infant School staff, whether employed by the Council or employed directly by the education establishment, external contractors providing services on behalf of the education establishment or the Council, teacher trainees and other trainees, volunteers and other individuals who work for or provide services on behalf of the education establishment. These individuals are collectively referred to as 'staff members' in this policy.
- This policy covers personal use of social media as well as the use of social media for official education establishment purposes; including sites hosted and maintained on behalf of the education establishment.

The internet is a fast moving technology and it is impossible to cover all circumstances or emerging media - the principles set out in this policy must be followed irrespective of the medium.

- You must not engage in activities involving social media which might bring Tornedale Infant School or the Council into disrepute.

- You must not use social media and the internet in any way to attack, insult, abuse or defame pupils, their family members, colleagues, other professionals, other organisations, insert education establishment name or the Council.

- You should ensure that at all times that you are not offensive, obscene, and discriminatory or harass others.
- You must be accurate, fair and transparent when creating or altering online sources of information on behalf of Tornedale Infant School or the Council.
- You should ensure that you do not misuse confidential, sensitive or copyrighted information.

PERSONAL USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA

- Staff should be aware that social network sites are not private and anything published on them is considered in the public domain. Your personal use of social media is not considered to be totally outside of the work domain and depending on your actions you may face disciplinary action at work for your personal use of social media.
- Staff members must not identify themselves as employees of Tornedale Infant School or Council or service providers for the education establishment or Council in their personal webspace. This is to prevent information on these sites from being linked with the education establishment and the Council and to safeguard the privacy of staff members, particularly those involved in providing sensitive frontline services.
- Staff members must not have contact through any personal social medium with any pupil, whether from Tornedale Infant School or any other education establishment, unless the pupils are family members. Staff members must decline 'friend requests' from pupils they receive in their personal social media accounts. If Staff Members receive such requests from pupils who are not family members, they must discuss these in general terms in class and signpost pupils to become 'friends' of the official education establishment site.
- Tornedale Infant school does not expect staff members to discontinue contact with their family members via personal social media once the education establishment starts providing services for them. However, any information staff members obtain in the course of their employment must not be used for personal gain nor be passed on to others who may use it in such a way.
- Staff members must not have any contact with pupils' family members through personal social media if that contact is likely to constitute a conflict of interest or call into question their objectivity.
- If staff members wish to communicate with pupils through social media sites or to enable pupils to keep in touch with one another, they can only do so with the approval of the education establishment and through official education establishment sites created.
- On leaving Tornedale Infant school's service; staff members must not contact Tornedale Infant school's pupils by means of personal social media sites. Similarly, staff members must not contact pupils from their former education establishments by means of personal social media.

uniforms or clothing with education establishment or Council logos or images identifying sensitive education establishment or Council premises (eg care homes, secure units) must not be published on personal webspace.

- Education establishment or Council email addresses and other official contact details must not be used for setting up personal social media accounts or to communicate through such media.
- Staff members must not edit open access online material including but not limited to online encyclopaedias such as Wikipedia in a personal capacity at work. This is because the source of the correction will be recorded as the employer's IP address and the intervention will, therefore, appear as if it comes from the employer itself.
- Tornedale Infant School or Council corporate, service or team logos or brands must not be used or published on personal webspace
- Tornedale Infant School only permits limited personal use of social media while at work. Access to social media sites for personal reasons is not allowed during contracted hours. Staff members are expected to devote their contracted hours of work to their professional duties and, in practice, personal use of the internet should not be on the education establishment's time.
- Caution is advised when inviting work colleagues to be 'friends' in personal social networking sites. Social networking sites blur the line between work and personal lives and it may be difficult to maintain professional relationships or it might be just too embarrassing if too much personal information is known in the work place.
- Staff members are strongly advised to ensure that they set the privacy levels of their personal sites as strictly as they can and to opt out of public listings on social networking sites to protect their own privacy. Staff members should keep their passwords confidential, change them often and be careful about what is posted online; it is not safe to reveal home addresses, telephone numbers and other personal information. It is a good idea to use a separate email address just for social networking so that any other contact details are not given away.

- Tornedale Infant school can monitor usage of its internet and email services without prior notification or authorisation from users.
- Users of Tornedale Infant School email and internet services should have no expectation of privacy in anything they create, store, send or receive using the education establishment's ICT system.

- A breach of this policy leading to breaches of confidentiality, or defamation or damage to the reputation of Tornedale Infant School or the Council or any illegal acts or acts that render Tornedale Infant School or the Council liable to third parties may result in disciplinary action or dismissal.

Any action against breaches should be according to the education establishment's internal disciplinary procedures.
